Landlord's Tenant Selection Criteria and Grounds for Denial

The following constitute the criteria reviewed and the grounds upon which U.S. Property (herein described as "Landlord") will base the decision to lease property to an applicant:

1. Criminal History: Landlord may perform a criminal history check on each applicant residing in the property who is 18 years of age and older and will verify the information provided by the applicant on the Rental Application. Landlord's decision regarding leasing the property to the applicant may be influenced by criminal activity.
2. Previous Rental History: Landlord will verify a previous rental history using the information provided on the Rental Application. Failure to provide the requested information, provision of inaccurate information, or information learned upon contracting previous landlords may influence Landlord's decision to lease the property to the applicant.
3. Current Income: Landlord may ask for verification of income as stated on the Rental Application. The sufficiency of income along with the ability to verify the stated income may influence Landlord's decision to lease the property to the applicant.
4. Credit History: Landlord will obtain a credit report in order to verify credit history. Landlord's decision to lease the property to the applicant may be based upon information obtained from this report.
5. Failure to Provide Accurate Information in Application: Failure to provide accurate information on the Rental Application or provision of information that is unverifiable will be considered by Landlord when making the decision to lease the property.
6. Other: Landlord may have other criteria pertinent to a particular property that will be disclosed.

Signing this acknowledgement indicates that applicant has had the opportunity to review the Landlord's tenant selection criteria. The tenant selection criteria may include items such as rental history, employment history, criminal background, credit history, current income, etc. If applicant does not meet the selection criteria, or provides inaccurate or incomplete information, the applicant may be rejected and the application fee will not be refunded.
